

Glenn Church Welcomes You

Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church is committed to loving God and loving neighbor with our whole selves - heart, mind, soul, and strength. As Jesus loved those around him, we believe that all persons are of sacred worth and dignity as part of God's creation. We welcome all persons into the full life and ministry of our congregation, regardless of race, culture, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, family or socioeconomic status, education, politics, physical or mental ability, or faith history.

Online Bible Study with the Pastors

Thursdays, 11:30 AM, beginning September 9th via Zoom. Join with the Glenn pastors as we move through the letters of Paul in the New Testament – picking up in 2nd Corinthians after our summer break. We will read through at our own pace, taking a look at the flow of Paul's thoughts and themes as he lays out for us the Good News of Christ and how God's grace our lives and our life together. Weekly "attendance" not required – join us anytime your schedule allows for discussion and reflection on the Scriptures. RSVP for the Zoom link with Rev. Susan Pinson.

AIDS Walk Atlanta. Saturday, September 25th

For 30 years, AIDS Walk Atlanta has helped our community raise vital funds to support local HIV and AIDS organizations. We are inviting Glenn Church to join team AID Atlanta for the 30th annual AIDS Walk Atlanta to raise funds, and raise awareness. The walk will be in person on Saturday, September 25th in Piedmont Park. Fundraising for team AID Atlanta is still immensely helpful to the community, even if you choose not to walk in person. Please email Robin Olson at Robin.Elizabeth.Martin@gmail.com for more information about joining team AID Atlanta.

Hosted at the home of Cheryl Griffin (in a large screened porch). Come as you are - straight from work, the gym, or the carpool shuffle! Light refreshments served. For more info, directions, and to RSVP or for more info, contact Rev. Susan Pinson.

Pride Evening Prayer, Sunday, October 3, 5:00 PM

Join us as we celebrate Pride Month and give thanks for the broad and beautiful diversity of people in this community as we join together to worship in prayer, word, and song on October 3rd at 5pm in the Glenn Sanctuary. The music, liturgy, and preaching will represent the many varied and important LGBTQIA+ voices from the current day and those who have gone before. The offering taken that day will also go to the Reconciling Ministries Network to continue the important work of advocating for full and equal rights for all persons in the Kin[g]dom of God.

Buxtehude was a celebrated organist in Northern Germany, whom a young J.S. Bach walked over 250 miles to hear play in 1705. The chaconne is a musical form in which a chord progression is reiterated and redecorated over and over again. This dance pattern originated in Spain in the early 17th century and gradually became popular around Europe as the Baroque period progressed.

Come — let us worship God.

The altar flowers are donated to the glory of God by the Altar Guild and in memory of Altar Guild member, Jane Grossman.

Last Sunday's flowers were given by the Emory University Office of Spiritual and Religious Life, in thankfulness for hosting their inaugural Welcoming Interfaith and Spiritual Exploration (WISE) pre-orientation group in August.

God Speaks

*THE SCRIPTURE LESSON | Psalm 19

Claire Asbury Lennox

<sup>1</sup> The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork. <sup>2</sup> Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge. <sup>3</sup> There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard; <sup>4</sup> yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In the heavens he has set a tent for the sun, <sup>5</sup> which comes out like a bridegroom from his wedding canopy, and like a strong man runs its course with joy. <sup>6</sup> Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them; and nothing is hid from its heat. <sup>7</sup> The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple; <sup>8</sup> the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes; <sup>9</sup> the fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. <sup>10</sup> More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb. <sup>11</sup> Moreover by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward. <sup>12</sup> But who can detect their errors? Clear me from hidden faults. <sup>13</sup> Keep back your servant also from the insolent; do not let them have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. <sup>14</sup> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

May God bless the reading of the Word. Thanks be to God.

The organist at Notre Dame de Paris, Louis Vierne wrote Carillon de Westminster (published 1927) for his friend, noted English organbuilder Henry Willis, who suggested the famous Westminster Clock chimes from the Houses of Parliament as a good subject. Willis must have hummed the tune incorrectly, because you will hear that some of the notes are in the wrong order. The piece builds from a distant start into a raucous finish with full organ engaged.
