UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

■ The Worship of God

FEBRUARY 13, 2022 | 11:00 A.M.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

The artwork on the cover is by Nathaniel Mokgosi (South African, b. 1946), titled “Come, ye blessed . . .,” from 1980.

LET US KNOW YOU'RE HERE

Register your attendance online, using the QR code, or in the attendance pad at the end of the pew. We will use contact information in case of the need for contact tracing for COVID-19. Thank you for continuing to support public health protocols of masking and distancing.

Childcare in the Fellowship Hall is available throughout the service. Masks required for all (age 2 & older). Parent/guardians, please escort your children and sign in with our Childcare Staff.

Hearing devices, pew cushions, and Children's Worship Kits are available from an usher.
UMH stands for United Methodist Hymnal, the red book located in your pew.

Your gifts directly support the ministries of Glenn.

Scan the QR code or visit www.glennumc.org/give to donate securely online.

GLENN CHURCH WELCOMES YOU

Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church is committed to loving God and loving neighbor with our whole selves – heart, mind, soul, and strength. As Jesus loved those around him, we believe that all persons are of sacred worth and dignity as part of God's creation. We welcome all persons into the full life and ministry of our congregation, regardless of race, culture, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, family or socioeconomic status, education, politics, physical or mental ability, or faith history. Glenn Memorial UMC has been a proud affiliate of Reconciling Ministries Network since 2014, and welcomes and affirms all LGBTQ+ persons.

The flowers are joyfully given to the glory of God by the Washburn family to celebrate Susan Pinson's birthday.

OPENING VOLUNTARY

Andante cantabile, from Piano Sonata No. 10 in C, K.330

W. A. Mozart (1756-1791)

This calming, song-like movement is the middle of the piece described by musicologist Alfred Einstein as "...a masterpiece, in which every note belongs—one of the most lovable works Mozart ever wrote." It opens with a choral-like theme, which then takes a turn to a minor, melancholy mood, before returning to the original, major melody.

WORDS OF WELCOME

The Rev. Mark Westmoreland

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: With joy and delight we gather to praise our Holy God! With reverence and awe, we approach our Gracious God.

ALL: We give thanks that God understands us and does not want us to be who we were never created to become.

One: Creating God, you call us to worship you as your children, made in your image.

ALL: We give thanks that God understands us, and encourages us to grow in our knowledge of God's holiness.

One: Glorious God, rooted in your love, we seek to grow stronger each day in faithfulness and grace.

ALL: We gather to worship and praise our supporting and caring God. Amen.

■ We Hear God's Word

THE FIRST LESSON

Ann Rushing

Pslam 1

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; ² but their delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law they meditate day and night. ³ They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper. ⁴ The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. ⁵ Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; ⁶ for the Lord watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

May God bless the reading of the Word.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

O Taste and See

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is:
blessed is the one that trusteth in God.

-Psalm 34, v.8

*THE GOSPEL LESSON

The Rev. Connor Bell

Luke 6:17-26

He came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸ They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. ¹⁹ And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them. ²⁰ Then he looked up at his disciples and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹ Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. ²² Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³ Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. ²⁴ But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. ²⁵ Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. ²⁶ Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.'

May God bless the reading of the Word.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

ALL: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE OFFERING & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. Bell

OFFERTORY

Beatus vir from Missae Vesperae de Solemnes

W. A. Mozart

Happy are those who fear the Lord, who greatly delight in his commandments. Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed. Wealth and riches are in their houses, and their righteousness endures forever. They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright; they are gracious, merciful, and righteous. It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice. For the righteous will never be moved; they will be remembered forever. They are not afraid of evil tidings; their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord. Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid; in the end they will look in triumph on their foes. They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures forever; their horn is exalted in honor. The wicked see it and are angry; they gnash their teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked comes to nothing. Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and forever shall be, world without end. Amen.

CLOSING VOLUNTARY

Scherzoso, from Sonata 8, Op. 132

Josef Rheinberger (1839-1901)

This movement comes from one of Rheinberger's 20 organ sonatas. He hoped to eventually write a total of 24 sonatas, each in a different key, in an effort to emulate J. S. Bach in his masterwork, the Well-Tempered Clavier. "Scherzoso" translates to "playful," but you will also hear elements reminiscent of a storm, rising in intensity.
