GLENN CHURCH WELCOMES YOU

Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church is committed to loving God and loving neighbor with our whole selves – heart, mind, soul, and strength. As Jesus loved those around him, we believe that all persons are of sacred worth and dignity as part of God's creation. We welcome all persons into the full life and ministry of our congregation, regardless of race, culture, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, family or socioeconomic status, education, politics, physical or mental ability, or faith history. Glenn Memorial UMC has been a proud affiliate of Reconciling Ministries Network since 2014, and welcomes and affirms all LGBTQ+ persons.

■ We Gather

You are invited to stand as you are able in body and spirit.*

OPENING VOLUNTARY

Improvisation

Nadia Boulanger (1887-1979)

Remembered primarily as a pedagogue with whom many of the great musicians of the twentieth century studied (including Aaron Copland, Philip Glass, John Eliot Gardiner, and many others), Nadia Boulanger was also a talented composer, though perhaps not as successful as her younger sister, Lili. This Improvisation drifts between different key areas and shows off the Hautbois (Oboe) stop of our Casavant organ.

WORDS OF WELCOME

The Rev. Brent Huckaby

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We praise our God, the Creator, who lit the world and breathed the breath of life into us.

ALL: We praise our God, the Son, who saved the world and stretched out his hand to us.

One: We praise our God, the Spirit, who blows through the world and blesses our souls with yearning.

ALL: We praise our God, the Trinity of love: God above us, God beside us, God beneath us; the beginning, the end, the everlasting one. Let us worship!

GRADUAL

Lift Thine Eyes

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-47)

Julia Lega, Sylvia Ware, and Käthe Wright Kaufman, soloists

Lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help. Thy help cometh from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth. He hath said, thy foot shall not be moved, thy keeper will never slumber.

-Text: Psalm 121

*THE GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 8:26-39

Richard Belcher

²⁶ Then they arrived at the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷ As he stepped out on shore, a man from the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had not worn any clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, shouting, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me," ²⁹ for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds). ³⁰ Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered him. ³¹ They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

³² Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding, and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd stampeded down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

³⁴ When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. ³⁵ Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they became frightened. ³⁶ Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. ³⁷ Then the whole throng of people of the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. ³⁸ The man from whom the demons had gone out begged that he might be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹ "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

May God bless the reading of the Word.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

■ We Respond

*HYMN UMC #182

Word of God, Come Down on Earth

LIEBSTER JESU

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed UMH 88o

ALL: We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

MORNING PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Rev. Connor Bell

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

For the Music of Creation

Hubert Parry, arr. Lloyd Larson (b. 1954)

Julia Lega and Sylvia Ware, soloists

For the music of creation, for the song your Spirit sings, for your sound's divine expression, burst of joy in living things: God, our God, the world's composer, hear us, echoes of your voice; music is your art, your glory, let the human heart rejoice! Psalms and symphonies exalt you, drum and trumpet, string and reed, simple melodies acclaim you, tunes that rise from deepest need, hymns of longing and belonging, carols from a cheerful throat, lilt of lullaby and love song catching heaven in a note. All the voices of the ages in transcendent chorus meet, worship lifting up the sense, hands that praise, and dancing feet; over discord and division music speaks your joy and peace, harmony of earth and heaven, song of God that cannot cease! Music is your art, your glory, let the human heart rejoice!

Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below; praise
God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
(Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.)

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

ALL: Gracious God, you transform lives and our life together. With thanksgiving for grace found and shared, we offer these our gifts. By your Spirit, transform our money into ministry that changes our lives, our community, and your world. In the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

CLOSING VOLUNTARY

March Héroïque

A. Herbert Brewer (1865-1928)

As Organist of Gloucester Cathedral, Brewer served as the head of the Three Choirs Festival in the UK and frequently conducted world premieres in that role. A student of Charles Villiers Stanford at the Royal College of Music, he was also close friends with Edward Elgar, and this heroic march betrays some very Elgarian harmonies and textures. Organist Christopher Herrick performed this piece at Westminster Abbey for the funeral of Earl Mountbatten of Burma, in 1979, which led to an increase in its popularity and reprinting of the music.
